- e) Notice to members may be given by any of these methods: mail, email or fax.

Special General Meetings

- 3.04 a) At the request of one of the Co-chairs of the Board of Directors, additional meetings of the membership can be called to discuss policy issues;
- b) The place of such meeting shall be set by the Board of Directors;
- c) The Board of Directors shall cause to be sent to each member of the Organization a Notice of Meeting ten (10) days prior to such meeting.
- d) An application for a general meeting signed by 6 members in good standing can be made to a Co-chair of the Board of Directors. One of the Co-chairs must call a general meeting within 20 days of receipt of the application;
- e) Notice to members may be given by any of these methods: mail, email or fax.

4 BOARD MEETINGS

Requirements to Convene Meetings

- 4.01 a) At the request of one of the Co-chairs of the Board of Directors, the Secretary shall convene Board meetings. The Secretary shall similarly convene Board meetings on the request of two Directors of the Board.
- b) The Board of Directors shall meet a minimum of four (4) times during the year.

Convening Meetings

- 4.02 The Secretary of the Board shall convene all meetings requested as outlined in 4.01 and shall be responsible for notifying all Directors. Five (5) days notice of such meeting shall be given to all Directors and such notice shall contain the date, place, time, and agenda of all meetings.

Representation and Participation at Meetings

- 4.03 Representation and participation at meetings shall be by the following means:
- a) personally; or
 - b) by proxy provided that the Director appointing such proxy-holder outlines in writing the extent of authority granted. Such proxy is valid only if given to the meeting chair at the outset of the meeting and extends only to the meeting in respect of which such proxy is granted. A Director participating at a meeting by this means is as well deemed to be present at the meeting; or
 - c) by telephone or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. A director participating at a meeting by this means is deemed to be present at the meeting.

Quorum

- 4.04
- a) A quorum consists of the number of directors participating and represented at a meeting as outlined in paragraph 4.03 who constitute 50% of the Board of Directors;
 - b) Any director with a conflict of interest, as outlined in Section 6 herein, may be counted in determining whether a quorum exists but shall not vote on any such business contract or arrangement;

Questions of Procedure

- 4.05 The meeting chair directs discussion and alone decides questions of procedure. A procedural decision undertaken by the meeting chair is subject to an appeal of that decision by a director. A 50% majority vote of the directors participating at a meeting is required to suspend or cancel such procedural decision undertaken by the meeting chair.

Decision Making

- 4.06
- a) Decisions of the Board are undertaken as long as a quorum exists
 - b) Bike to the Future will employ consensus while making decisions at the Board level.
 - c) In the event that consensus cannot be reached, the Directors may exercise the option to move to a voting procedure whereby each member is allowed one vote. With the approval of 75% of the Directors present, the motion can be put to a vote. Decisions are binding if 75% of the Directors present vote in favor of a particular motion.
 - d) The meeting chair cannot exercise a right of vote;
 - e) A vote can occur in the following ways: i) upon a show of hands; or ii) through verbal confirmation of vote by such directors as participating by telephone as provided for in paragraph 4.03 herein; or iii) where a director is represented by a duly appointed proxy, such proxy is entitled to vote by show of hands in the stead of such director.

- f) A vote shall occur as outlined in Section 4.06 e) unless a poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded such decision shall be undertaken by the Directors by ballot other than those participating by telephone as provided for in paragraph 4.03 herein who shall be entitled to vote through verbal confirmation of vote.
- g) The decisions of the Board of Directors undertaken without a quorum must be ratified at the next meeting of the Board of Directors where a quorum does exist.
